Psalm 144

O God, it is difficult to understand how You can regard man with such high regard and show him so much concern.

His years upon this earth are so few.

He is little more than a wisp of wind in the time and space of Your great universe.

You created him as the object of Your love—only to see him turn from You to play with his foolish toys.

You tried to teach him to love his fellowman—only to see him express his fear and suspicion and hate through cruel acts of violence and war.

You showered upon him Your abundant gifts—only to see him make them his ultimate concern.

Still You continue to love him and seek incessantly to save him from destroying himself and the world You have placed in his hands.

Even while he rejects You, You reach out to draw him back to Yourself.

Even while he suffers the painful consequences of his rank rebelliousness, You offer to him Your healing and demonstrate Your desire to restore him to love and joy.

And when he finally turns to You, he finds You waiting for him, ready to forgive his sins and to reunite him to Your life and purposes once more.

That man who returns to his God is happy indeed!

He will forever be the object of God's love and blessings.

—Leslie Brandt

Who is on the Lord's side? Who will serve the King?
Who will be His helpers, Other lives to bring?
Who will leave the world's side? Who will face the foe?
Who is on the Lord's side? Who for Him will go?
By Thy call of mercy,

Chorus
By Thy grace divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Savior, we are Thine.

Not for weight of glory, Not for crown and palm,
Enter we the army, Raise the warrior palm;
But for Love that claimeth, Lives for who He died:
He whom Jesus nameth, Must be on His side,
By Thy love constraining,

Chorus
By Thy grace divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Savior, we are Thine.

Jesus, Thou hast bought us, Not with gold or gem,
But with Thine own life blood, For Thy diadem;
With Thy blessing filling, Each who comes to Thee,
Thou hast made us willing, Thou hast made us free,
By Thy grand redemption,

Chorus
By Thy grace divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Savior, we are Thine.

Fierce may be the conflict, Strong may be the foe,
But the King's own army, None can overthrow;
Round His standard ranging, Vict'ry is secure,
For His truth unchanging, Makes the triumph sure.
Joyfully enlisting,

Chorus
By Thy grace divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Savior, we are Thine.
