This all my prayer shall be: more love, O Christ, to thee;
This still its prayer shall be: more love, O Christ, to thee;

more love to thee, more love to thee!

Perhaps because this prayer-poem by the wife of a leading 19th-century Presbyterian minister grew out of her own physical and emotional suffering, it has continued to speak to many people in similar distress. It is set here to the tune created for its first printing in a hymnal.

More Love to Thee, O Christ

1. More love to Thee, O Christ, more love to Thee!
 2. Once earth - ly joy I craved, sought peace and rest;
 3. Then shall my lat - est breath whis - per Thy praise;

Hear Thou the prayer I make on bend - ed knee;
 now Thee a - lone I seek, give what is best;
 this be the part - ing cry my heart shall raise;

this is my ear - nest plea:
 this all my prayer shall be: more love, O Christ, to Thee,
 this still its prayer shall be:
