We Sing the Almighty Power of God

504

1 We sing th'al-might-y pow'r of God that made the moun-tains rise,
2 We sing the good-ness of the Lord that filled the earth with food;
3 There's not a plant or flow'r be-low but makes your glo-ries known,

that spread the flow-ing seas a-broad and built the loft-y skies.
he formed the crea-tures with his Word and then pro-nounced them good.
and clouds a-rise and tem-pests blow by or-der from your throne;

We sing the wis-dom that or-dained the sun to rule the day;
Lord, how your won-ders are dis-played wher-e'er we turn our eyes, while all that bor-rows life from you is ev-er in your care,

the moon shines full at his com-mand, and all the stars o-bey.
if we sur-vey the ground we tread or gaze up-on the skies.
and ev-'ry-where that we can be, you, God, are pres-ent there.

from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Words: Isaac Watts, 1715.

Music: English melody.

I sing the mighty power of God, that made the mountains rise,
[or I sing thalmighty power of God]
That spread the flowing seas abroad, and built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at Gods command, and all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of the Lord, who filled the earth with food,
Who formed the creatures through the Word, and then pronounced them good.
Lord, how Thy wonders are displayed, whereer I turn my eye,
If I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the sky.

Theres not a plant or flower below, but makes Thy glories known,
And clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from Thy throne;
While all that borrows life from Thee is ever in Thy care;
And everywhere that we can be, Thou, God art present there.
